

Tenure Track Position - Department of Criminology

Position code SHCR4115

The Department of Criminology at Ariel University invites applications for tenure track positions at all levels, with expertise and ability to teach in Hebrew.

Candidates are expected to have established an exemplary track record both in research (as evident from high quality publications) and in teachings. The candidate should hold a Ph.D. and Postdoctoral training abroad.

Accepted applicants will be expected to initiate research, teach, apply for grants and take a part in all department activities.

Applicants should submit:

- A cover letter describing existing and planned areas of research, as well as potential contribution to the Department of Criminology
- A curriculum vitae with a list of publications (see guidelines)
- A teaching statement which includes teaching interests and previous teaching experience as well as, results of teaching evaluation (if available)
- Copies of 3 published articles
- Two letters of recommendations including contact information

To apply please send all requested documents, with a position code (SHCR4115) included to academic.positions@ariel.ac.il

- The availability of positions and final acceptance is subject to the university approval.
- The academic rank will be commensurate with the candidate's qualifications and achievements.
- Employment terms and salaries will be according to academic salary scales for universities in Israel as determined by CHE regulations.