

Call for a Tenure Track Faculty Research Position

The Department of Criminology, Bar Ilan University invites relevant candidates to submit an application for a tenure track research position at the level of lecturer.

Priority will be given to candidates whose research interests demonstrate novel and unexplored areas within the current faculty's research areas.

The successful applicant will have:

- Degrees in criminology, psychology, sociology, education, social work, brain sciences or related fields
- A proven record of excellence in research (e.g. publications in international peer-reviewed journals, grants, prizes, post-doctorate)
- Teaching experience is an advantage
- Ability to integrate and work in a team

Candidates must be fluent in Hebrew at a level sufficient for teaching.

Required documents

- CV and academic profile in the following format: CV format
- 2 years teaching records if applicable
- 2-3 representative articles

The CV, teaching records and articles should be sent to hila.moalem@biu.ac.il

- Names of potential referees (2-3); please provide the affiliations and email addresses.

All applications and recommendations should be sent by 18th January 2024.

Inquiries may be made to Professor Galit Nahari: galit.nahari@biu.ac.il

We encourage diversity and invite all relevant applicants to apply.

نحن نشجع التنوع وندعو المرشحين المناسبين ان يقدموا الطلب

The position is subject to final academic budgetary approval of the university.